

Hesters Way Writers Group

We are inviting new members to join our group in 2018

Who are we?

A small group of writers who meet to share stories and poems. Some of us have years of authorship behind us, others are relatively recent writers.

Where and when do we meet?

At the Hesters Way Community Resource Centre opposite the college on Wednesday mornings. We call at the centre café at 11am for a coffee and a chat. Our official start time in the meeting room is 11.30am.

What does it cost to join?

There is no membership fee and the centre gives us the room for free.

What does the group offer?

We motivate each other to write something new each week with suggested themes or titles. We listen to works that are in progress and offer constructive criticism if asked. We experiment with different styles and genres but generally we work on short pieces which just take a few minutes to read to the group.

Why not come along and share some of your writing with us?
